We rely on the following purposes, also known as the legal bases for processing personal data:

Fulfilling a contract

This basis is appropriate where the processing is necessary for us to manage your accounts and credit union services to you.

Administrative purposes	We will use the information provided by you, either contained in this form or any other form or application, for the purpose of assessing this application, processing applications you make and to maintain and administer any accounts you have with the credit union.
Third parties	We may appoint external third parties to undertake operational functions on our behalf. We will ensure that any information passed to third parties conducting operational functions on our behalf will do so with respect for the security of your data and will be protected in line with data protection law. The credit union shares personal data with government and state bodies to facilitate payroll deduction where members opt to deduct savings and/or loan agreements from source.

Irish League of Credit Unions ("ILCU") Affiliation	The ILCU (a trade and representative body for credit unions in Ireland and Northern Ireland) provides professional and business support services such as marketing and public affairs representation, monitoring, financial, guidance, compliance, risk, learning and development, and insurance services to affiliated credit unions. As this credit union is affiliated to the ILCU, the credit union must also operate in line with the ILCU Standard Rules (which members of the credit union are bound to the credit union by) and the League Rules (by which the credit union is bound to the ILCU). We may disclose information in your application or in respect of any account or transaction of yours from the date of your original membership to authorised officers or employees of the ILCU for the purpose of the ILCU providing these services to us. The Privacy Notice of the ILCU can be found at www.creditunion.ie

We may also collect, store and use special categories of more sensitive information in the event that you apply for a loan, where we need to carry out our legal obligations and where it is needed in the public interest and in line with our data protection policy. Less commonly, we may process this type of information where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests or someone else's interests and you are not capable of giving your consent or where you have already made the information public.

Credit Assessment

When assessing your application for a loan, as well as the information referred to in credit assessment, the credit union also utilises credit data from credit referencing and credit assessment agencies such as CRIF and the Central Credit Register (“CCR”).

Account Information Service

CRIF Realtime Ireland (CRIF) is an ‘Account Information Service Provider’ or AISP. An authorised AISP can ask for permission to access bank account data and use information to provide a service. In this case the service would be to verify your income details and recent transactional data. CRIF is authorised by the Central Bank of Ireland and licenced to operate in the Republic of Ireland.

Automated Decision Making

The Credit Union sometimes uses automated decision making to enable us to deliver decisions within a shorter time frame and to improve the efficiency of our processes. An example of where we may use automated decision making is as part of our credit decision process, which involves assessing your application for credit, taking account of your current circumstances and evaluating your ability to meet the required repayments. The decision process takes into account different types of information, for example: information you have provided in your application such as the amount requested, the repayment period, your income, employment details, credit history with credit reference agencies such as the Central Credit Register and details of other credit facilities you may have such as loans, overdrafts and credit cards. The Credit Union uses this information to apply internal credit assessment rules in a consistent manner. This ensures that your application for credit is treated fairly, efficiently and that we believe you can afford the required repayments. We review the automated credit decision making process on an ongoing basis to ensure that it remains fair, efficient and unbiased in order to better serve our members. Automated decision making is only used to approve loan applications. Automated decision making is never used by the Credit Union to decline loan applications.
